Re: United States v. John Magee Gavin
 Criminal No. 25-cr-10292-FDS

Dear Attorney Miner:

The United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts (the “U.S. Attorney”) and your client, John Magee Gavin (“Defendant”), agree as follows, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure (“Rule”) 11(c)(1)(C):

1. Change of Plea

No later than Monday, December 15, 2025, Defendant will plead guilty to counts One through Three of the Indictment: coercion and enticement, and attempt, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2422(b), receipt of child pornography, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2252A(a)(2)(A) and (b)(1), and possession of child pornography, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2252A(a)(5)(B) and (b)(2). Defendant admits that Defendant committed the crimes specified in these counts and is in fact guilty of each one.

2. Penalties

Defendant faces the following mandatory minimum and maximum penalties on Count One: a mandatory minimum sentence of 10 years and up to life in prison; at least five years and up to a lifetime of supervised release; a fine of up to $250,000; a $100 mandatory special assessment; a $5,000 discretionary special assessment under 18 U.S.C. § 3014 (the “JVTA” assessment); restitution; and forfeiture to the extent charged in the Indictment. Defendant faces the following mandatory minimum and maximum penalties for Count Two: a mandatory minimum sentence of five years and up to 20 years in prison; at least five years and up to a lifetime of supervised release; a fine of up to $250,000; a $100 mandatory special assessment; a $5,000 discretionary special assessment under 18 U.S.C. § 3014; a $35,000 discretionary special assessment under 18 U.S.C. § 2259A (the “AVAA” assessment); restitution; and forfeiture to the extent charged in the Indictment. Defendant faces the following maximum penalties for Count Three: a sentence of up to 20 years in prison; at least five years and up to a lifetime of supervised release; a fine of up to $250,000; a $100 mandatory special assessment; a $5,000 discretionary special assessment under 18 U.S.C. § 3014; a $17,000 discretionary special assessment under 18 U.S.C. § 2259A (the “AVAA” assessment); restitution; and forfeiture to the extent charged in the Indictment.

Defendant understands that, if Defendant is not a United States citizen by birth, pleading guilty may affect Defendant’s immigration status. Defendant agrees to plead guilty regardless of any potential immigration consequences, even if Defendant’s plea results in being automatically removed from the United States.

3. Rule 11(c)(1)(C) Plea

In accordance with Rule 11(c)(1)(C), if the Court accepts this Plea Agreement, the Court must include the agreed disposition in the judgment. If the Court rejects any part of this Plea Agreement, the U.S. Attorney may void the agreement and/or Defendant may withdraw from it. Defendant may not withdraw Defendant’s plea for any other reason.

Should the U.S. Attorney void the agreement and/or Defendant moves to withdraw Defendant’s guilty plea, Defendant agrees to waive any defenses based upon statute of limitations, the constitutional protection against pre-indictment delay, and the Speedy Trial Act for all charges that could have been brought as of the date of this Plea Agreement.

4. Sentencing Guidelines

The parties agree, based on the following calculations, that Defendant’s total “offense level” under the Guidelines is 33:

Count I (Group I): OL 32

- a) Defendant’s base offense level is 28 (USSG § 2G1.3(a)(3));
- b) Defendant’s offense level is increased by 2, because a computer was used to persuade, induce, entice, coerce the minor to engage in prohibited sexual conduct (USSG § 2G1.3(b)(3)(A));
- c) Defendant’s offense level is increased by 2, because the offense involved the commission of a sex act (USSG § 2G1.3(b)(4)(A)).

Count II and III (Group II): OL 34

- a) Defendant’s base offense level is 22 (USSG § 2G2.2(a)(2));

- b) Defendant's offense level is reduced by 2 levels, because the Defendant did not intend to traffic in, or distribute, such material (USSG § 2G2.2(b)(1));
- c) Defendant's offense level is increased by 2 levels, as the material involved a prepubescent minor or a minor who had not attained the age of 12 years (USSG § 2G2.2(b)(2));
- d) Defendant's offense level is further increased by 5 levels, as the defendant engaged in a pattern of activity involving the sexual abuse or exploitation of a minor (USSG § 2G2.2(b)(5));
- e) Defendant's offense level is further increased by 2 levels, as the offense(s) involved the use of a computer or an interactive computer service (USSG § 2G2.2(b)(6)); and
- f) Defendant's offense level is further increased by 5 levels, as the offense(s) involved 600 or more images (USSG § 2G2.2(b)(7)(D)).

The parties agree that Count One (Group I) does not group under USSG § 3D1.2, however, Counts Two and Three (Group II) do specifically group under USSG § 3D1.2. Pursuant to USSG § 3D1.4, 2 additional levels are added to the highest total offense level because each Group counts as one Unit, for a total of two Units.

Defendant's offense level is decreased by 3, because Defendant has accepted responsibility for Defendant's crimes (USSG § 3E1.1).

Defendant understands that the Court is not required to follow this calculation. Defendant also understands that the government will object to any reduction in Defendant's sentence based on acceptance of responsibility, and may be released from the parties' agreed-upon disposition in Paragraph 5 if: (a) at sentencing, Defendant (directly or through counsel) indicates that Defendant does not fully accept responsibility for having engaged in the conduct underlying each of the elements of the crimes to which Defendant is pleading guilty; or (b) by the time of sentencing, Defendant has committed a new federal or state offense, or has in any way obstructed justice.

Nothing in this Plea Agreement affects the U.S. Attorney's obligation to provide the Court and the U.S. Probation Office with accurate and complete information regarding this case.

5. Agreed Disposition

The parties agree on the following sentence:

- a) incarceration for 120 months;
- b) a fine within the Guidelines sentencing range as calculated by the Court at sentencing, excluding departures, unless the Court finds that Defendant is not able, and is not likely to become able, to pay a fine;

- c) 60 months of supervised release;
- d) a mandatory special assessment of $300, which Defendant must pay to the Clerk of the Court by the date of sentencing; and
- e) the JVTA assessment, unless the Court finds that Defendant is not able, and is not likely to become able, to pay;
- f) the AVAA assessment, unless the Court finds that Defendant is not able, and is not likely to become able, to pay;
- g) restitution in an amount to be determined by the Court at sentencing; and
- h) forfeiture as set forth in Paragraph 7.

Defendant agrees that all criminal monetary penalties, including special assessment, restitution, forfeiture, and/or fine imposed shall be due and payable immediately, and further agrees that any Court-ordered repayment schedule does not preclude further enforcement or collection by the United States.

6. Waiver of Appellate Rights and Challenges to Conviction or Sentence

Defendant has the right to challenge Defendant's conviction and sentence on "direct appeal." This means that Defendant has the right to ask a higher court (the "appeals court") to look at what happened in this case and, if the appeals court finds that the trial court or the parties made certain mistakes, overturn Defendant's conviction or sentence. Also, in some instances, Defendant has the right to file a separate civil lawsuit claiming that serious mistakes were made in this case and that Defendant's conviction or sentence should be overturned.

Defendant understands that Defendant has these rights, but now agrees to give them up. Specifically, Defendant agrees that:

- a) Defendant will not challenge Defendant's conviction on direct appeal or in any other proceeding, including in a separate civil lawsuit; and
- b) Defendant will not challenge Defendant's sentence, including any court orders related to forfeiture, restitution, fines or supervised release, on direct appeal or in any other proceeding, including in a separate civil lawsuit.

The U.S. Attorney agrees not to appeal the imposition of the sentence agreed to by the parties in paragraph 5.

Defendant understands that, by agreeing to the above, Defendant is agreeing that Defendant's conviction and sentence will be final when the Court issues a written judgment after the sentencing hearing in this case. That is, after the Court issues a written judgment, Defendant will lose the right to appeal or otherwise challenge Defendant's conviction and sentence regardless of whether Defendant later changes Defendant's mind or finds new information that would have led Defendant not to agree to give up these rights in the first place.

Defendant is agreeing to give up these rights in exchange for concessions the U.S. Attorney is making in this Agreement.

The parties agree that, despite giving up these rights, Defendant keeps the right to later claim that Defendant's lawyer rendered ineffective assistance of counsel, or that the prosecutor or a member of law enforcement involved in the case engaged in misconduct serious enough to entitle Defendant to have Defendant's conviction or sentence overturned.

7. Forfeiture

Defendant understands that the Court will, upon acceptance of Defendant's guilty plea, enter an order of forfeiture as part of Defendant's sentence, and that the order of forfeiture may include assets directly traceable to Defendant's offense, assets used to facilitate Defendant's offense, substitute assets and/or a money judgment equal to the value of the property derived from, or otherwise involved in, the offense.

The assets to be forfeited specifically include, without limitation, the following:

- a. a blue Apple iPhone, serial number 3543468910455213, with black Magbak case, seized on February 7, 2025.

Defendant admits that these assets are subject to forfeiture on the grounds that they were used or intended to be used to commit or to promote the commission of Defendant's offenses. Defendant agrees to consent to the entry of orders of forfeiture for such property and waives the requirements of Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 11(b)(1)(J), 32.2, and 43(a) regarding notice of the forfeiture in the charging instrument, advice regarding the forfeiture at the change-of-plea hearing, announcement of the forfeiture at sentencing, and incorporation of the forfeiture in the judgment. Defendant understands and agrees that forfeiture shall not satisfy or affect any fine, lien, penalty, restitution, cost of imprisonment, tax liability or any other debt owed to the United States.

Defendant agrees to assist fully in the forfeiture of the foregoing assets. Defendant agrees to promptly take all steps necessary to pass clear title to the forfeited assets to the United States, including but not limited to executing any and all documents necessary to transfer such title, assisting in bringing any assets located outside of the United States within the jurisdiction of the United States, and taking whatever steps are necessary to ensure that assets subject to forfeiture are not sold, disbursed, wasted, hidden or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture. Defendant further agrees (a) not to assist any third party in asserting a claim to the forfeited assets in an ancillary proceeding, and (b) to testify truthfully in any such proceeding.

If the U.S. Attorney requests, Defendant shall deliver to the U.S. Attorney within 30 days after signing this Plea Agreement a sworn financial statement disclosing all assets in which Defendant currently has any interest and all assets over which Defendant has exercised control, or has had any legal or beneficial interest. Defendant further agrees to be deposed with respect to Defendant's assets at the request of the U.S. Attorney. Defendant agrees that the United States Department of Probation may share any financial information about the Defendant with the United States Attorney's Office.

Defendant also agrees to waive all constitutional, legal, and equitable challenges (including direct appeal, habeas corpus, or any other means) to any forfeiture carried out in accordance with this Plea Agreement.

Defendant hereby waives and releases any claims Defendant may have to any vehicles, currency, or other personal property seized by the United States, or seized by any state or local law enforcement agency and turned over to the United States, during the investigation and prosecution of this case, and consents to the forfeiture of all such assets.

8. Civil Liability

This Plea Agreement does not affect any civil liability, including any tax liability, Defendant has incurred or may later incur due to Defendant's criminal conduct and guilty plea to the charges specified in Paragraph 1 of this Agreement.

9. Breach of Plea Agreement

Defendant understands that if Defendant breaches any provision of this Agreement, violates any condition of Defendant's pre-trial release or commits any crime following Defendant's execution of this Plea Agreement, Defendant cannot rely upon such conduct to withdraw Defendant's guilty plea. Defendant's conduct, however, would give the U.S. Attorney the right to be released from the U.S. Attorney's commitments under this Agreement, to pursue any charges that were, or are to be, dismissed under this Agreement, and to use against Defendant any of Defendant's statements, and any information or materials Defendant provided to the government during investigation or prosecution of Defendant's case—even if the parties had entered any earlier written or oral agreements or understandings about this issue.

Defendant also understands that if Defendant breaches any provision of this Agreement or engages in any of the aforementioned conduct, Defendant thereby waives any defenses based on the statute of limitations, constitutional protections against pre-indictment delay, and the Speedy Trial Act, that Defendant otherwise may have had to any charges based on conduct occurring before the date of this Agreement.

10. Who is Bound by Plea Agreement

This Agreement is only between Defendant and the U.S. Attorney for the District of Massachusetts. It does not bind the Attorney General of the United States or any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities.

11. Modifications to Plea Agreement

This Agreement can be modified or supplemented only in a written memorandum signed by both parties, or through proceedings in open court.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PLEA AGREEMENT

I have read this letter and discussed it with my attorney. The letter accurately presents my agreement with the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts. There are no unwritten agreements between me and the United States Attorney's Office, and no United States government official has made any unwritten promises or representations to me in connection with my guilty plea. I have received no prior offers to resolve this case.

I understand the crimes I am pleading guilty to, and the mandatory minimum and maximum penalties for those crimes. I have discussed the Sentencing Guidelines with my lawyer, and I understand the sentencing ranges that may apply.

I am satisfied with the legal representation my lawyer has given me, and we have had enough time to meet and discuss my case. We have discussed the charges against me, possible defenses I might have, the terms of this Agreement and whether I should go to trial.

I am entering into this Agreement freely and voluntarily and because I am in fact guilty of the offenses. I believe this Agreement is in my best interest.

I certify that John Magee Gavin has read this Agreement and that we have discussed what it means. I believe John Magee Gavin understands the Agreement and is entering into it freely, voluntarily, and knowingly. I also certify that the U.S. Attorney has not extended any other offers regarding a change of plea in this case.
